Rocky Mountain Power Foundation grant supports after school activities for students

BRIGHAM CITY, Utah — The Rocky Mountain Power Foundation has awarded a $5,000 grant to the Boys & Girls Club of Brigham City to help support the After School Learning Lab program.

The Learning Lab program provides activities, programs and events to students after school at multiple sites in Northern Box Elder County. The Learning Labs focus on the three core areas of literacy, math and science and provide students the opportunity to increase their skills, knowledge and abilities in a unique educational environment.

“The Boys & Girls Club of Brigham City enables young people, especially those in need, to reach their full potential,” said George Humbert Rocky Mountain Power customer and community manager. “We are proud to support this program in Box Elder County.”

“The Boys & Girls Club is proud to partner with the Rocky Mountain Power Foundation in providing this program to more than 750 youth of working class families the club serves throughout Box Elder County,” said JeuneElle Jeffries, executive director of the Boys & Girls Club of Brigham City.
