

Contact: Jeff Hymas, Rocky Mountain Power
801-220-2340, jeff.hymas@pacificorp.com

Jan. 5, 2011
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celtic Festival headlines De Danann from Ireland and Swedish group Vasen with grant from Rocky Mountain Power Foundation

EVANSTON, Wyo. — Thanks in part to a $2,000 grant to Young Musicians, Inc. from the Rocky Mountain Power Foundation, De Danann from Ireland and the Swedish group Vasen with Mike Marshall and Darol Anger will entertain audiences as the two headlining concerts at the 3rd Annual Celtic Festival.

The Celtic Festival, scheduled for March 11-12, 2011, in the historic Roundhouse Complex in downtown Evanston, will give festival participants a chance to discover and experience Celtic culture and traditions through workshops, demonstrations, music, arts, crafts and food.

“We are grateful to receive funding from the foundation so we can move ahead into our third year for the Celtic Festival, making Ceili at the Roundhouse an ongoing event that will bring commerce into Evanston, which will help Young Musicians and the whole community,” said Carolee Bowen, Young Musicians executive director. “Our headline entertainment is the real thing, not just a reenactment. I believe that is key in presenting an event that will draw participants from the surrounding area.”

“This festival celebrates and shares the rich Celtic culture in an event that is fun for the whole family, and the Rocky Mountain Power Foundation is pleased to be a partner with others in the community to sponsor this worthy event,” said Craig Nelson, Rocky Mountain Power's customer and community manager.

“Receiving this grant from the Rocky Mountain Power Foundation has been a great and unexpected boost to Young Musicians and specifically to the Celtic Festival,” said Eric Pasenelli, treasurer, Young Musicians board of directors.

- 30 -

About Young Musicians, Inc.

The mission of Young Musicians, Inc. is to present outstanding arts and cultural events in the community with an emphasis on education, and to make music and the arts a higher priority in public school systems. Young Musician's, Inc., founded in 1995, has grown to be one of the premier presenting organizations in the region. All of the events put on by Young Musicians have an educational component. Annual events include: the Uinta County Concert Series, Specialists in the Schools Project, Young Musicians Strings and Piano Festivals, Ceili at the Roundhouse Celtic Festival, Music Art and Technology Camp, and Skenachy World MusicFest. For more information regarding the Celtic Festival or other Young Musician's events, or to purchase tickets, visit their website www.YoungMusicians.net, www.EvanstonTickets.com, or call 307-679-2348.

About the Rocky Mountain Power Foundation

The Rocky Mountain Power Foundation is part of the PacifiCorp Foundation, one of the largest utility-endowed foundations in the United States. The foundation was created in 1988 by PacifiCorp, an electric utility serving 1.7 million customers in six Western states as Rocky Mountain Power (Utah, Wyoming and Idaho) and Pacific Power

(Oregon, Washington and California). The foundation's mission, through charitable investments, is to support the growth and vitality of the communities served by Pacific Power and Rocky Mountain Power. For more information visit, www.rockymountainpower.net/rmpfoundation.