

Be *watt*smart.

It's about being energy efficient. Turning off lights, computers and other electronics when not in use. It's about taking advantage of cash incentives to upgrade to energy-efficient equipment. To get smart about energy, visit wattsmart.com.

Let's turn the answers on.